

June 14, 1940.

Mr. A. W. Hardy,
153 Court St.,
Newark, N. J.

Dear Mr. Hardy:

I am writing to apologize for not attending the Reception at the "Y" on Wednesday, June 12th. I had every intention of being there and at the last minute urgent business prevented my attending.

Please accept my apology. I will try and see you some time soon to tell you how sorry I am not to have been with you all.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ